CIA, 2430 E St. N.W.
Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. Houston,

STATINTL

The Holidays are over and the [REDACTED] land-grab, in which you tried to disclaim responsibility on part of CIA, is still in an unsolved, unsatisfactory condition. The amount owed now is $400. and this nonpayment caused considerable discomfort and damage.

As the matter stands now, after the advice of the D.A.
it will have to go to the civil Courts and it will be impossible to leave the CIA out of responsibility for the actions of its employee, or employees, (since [REDACTED] as always referred by [REDACTED] as "Chief")

STATINTL

STATINTL

And by the way, Mrs. de Bobula, before the D.A., abstained from bringing up [REDACTED] record, which the CIA should certainly have.

Under the circumstances, responsibility clearly rests on the CIA and we expect very speedy conclusion of this matter.

I am, sincerely,

deBobula/
